Come to Bowling Green, Ohio to experience the biggest holiday parade in Northwest Ohio. This almost 20 year old tradition has been growing and growing over the years with over 10 marching bands, over 40 floats and over 130 entrees yearly!

Last year's parade was televised for the first time by Fox-TV Toledo and will be again this year. Here is how you can spend the rest of your day in BG after enjoying the parade.

Bowling Green's Holiday Parade Day Itinerary November 17th, 2007 Downtown BG

8:00 a.m. Warm up with a cup of coffee or hot chocolate at Grounds for Thought or Pan era Bread, on Main Street.

9:00 a.m. Pick your front row seat & set up chairs for the parade.

10:00 a.m. Enjoy the parade.

12:00 a.m. Dad can watch the Ohio State/Michigan Game at Jed's Barbeque & Brew while eating lunch, the kids can watch a movie at the Cla-Zel Theater across the street and Mom can Christmas shop in downtown BG.
