

I-75 Corridor

★ Toledo ★ Bowling Green ★ Findlay ★ Lima

toledo do what refreshes you.

Greater Toledo Convention & Visitors Bureau
800.243.4667 www.doToledo.org

Toledo-so much to do...located at the intersection of America's two most traveled highways (I-75 and 80/90 Turnpike) one visit won't be enough! Tour historic homes and gardens in the Old West End, take a mule drawn Canal Boat Ride, discover masters at the Toledo Museum of Art or enjoy a wonderful performance at an area theatre. Take a cruise along the Maumee River aboard the Sandpiper, test science at COSI, explore the mythology of dragons at the Toledo Zoo, or visit one of our beautiful gardens. Not to mention the array of dining options. Choose from the legendary Tony Packo's, multiple cuisine types and waterfront dining at the Docks restaurants and so many more! Let one of our energetic Step-On Guides bring all of your interests together with a wonderful narrated tour of Greater Toledo or make up your own fun filled itinerary. Whatever your groups' interests, Toledo-do what refreshes you!

Bowling Green Convention & Visitors Bureau
800.866.0046 www.visitbgohio.org

Make BG your place to be! Enjoy our revitalized downtown, loaded with restaurants, specialty shops, and friendly people. Take our self-guided tour along our historic streets, visit our National Construction Equipment Museum, the Wood County Historical Center & Museum, or Snook's Dream Cars Automobile Museum. Stroll through our many city parks and play golf on one of three championship golf courses. Bowling Green is home to Bowling Green State University and the Fighting Falcons, the only Wind Farm in the state of Ohio, and the Black Swamp Arts Festival. Experience the Classic on Main Auto Show or the thunder and power of the National Tractor Pull. With our historic charm, glorious countryside and fascinating people, we guarantee a postcard-worthy trip you won't soon forget. With direct access to I-75, the City of Bowling Green is located less than two hours from Cleveland, Columbus, Detroit and less than a half hour from Toledo. Call or visit our website for details.

Hancock County Convention & Visitors Bureau
800.424.3315 www.visitfindlay.com

Let the Findlay Hancock County CVB save you time and money. Bureau Services include: Welcome Packets, Step on Guide Service, Calendar of Events, Free Visitor Guides, FAM Tours and customized tours! Hancock County, located 45 miles south of Toledo and 100 miles north of Dayton, is linked by an excellent system of interstates, state routes, and local highways, making it the perfect stop in the heart of northwest Ohio and the United States. Findlay is home of Flag City USA. Witness history at its best at the Hancock Historical Museum, Black Heritage Library & Multicultural Center, Ghost Town & Historical Homes on South Main Street. Home of Tell Taylor and "Down by the Old Millstream." The Mazza Museum, located on the University of Findlay campus, is the only teaching gallery in the world that specializes in illustrations of children's books. Hancock County is home to over 3,000 acres of parks & recreation. Join us at the historic Litzenberg Memorial Woods, Riverside Park or Riverbend Recreation Area. Don't forget the golf - Red Hawk Run Golf Course is a Top 10 in the state of Ohio. Experience the art of making nuts and fine chocolates - Wolfie's Nuts and Dietsch Brothers Ice Cream and Chocolates!

Lima/Allen County Convention & Visitors Bureau
888.222.6075 www.lima-allencvb.com

Visit us in Lima/Allen County and discover our heritage and learn about our rail history at the Allen County Museum. Attend sports activities and events at the Allen County Fairgrounds, races at Limaland Motorsports Park, or enjoy the Rallies or Square Fair in Downtown Lima. Enjoy scenic hiking and biking along the Ottawa River Corridor or play golf at one of our fine courses. Experience a Broadway show or the Lima Symphony Orchestra at the Veterans Memorial Civic and Convention Center, community theatre at Encore Theatre, and art exhibits at Artspace/Lima. Shop at a variety of retail department stores and quaint boutiques. Whether you are visiting for the first time or you are a repeat guest, you can always expect great service and a warm welcome in Lima/Allen County. One of Lima's outstanding assets is its location in northwest Ohio with easy access off I-75 and many state routes. Call the Lima/Allen County Convention and Visitors Bureau for tour planning assistance when you are planning your next road trip or visit our website for more information.